DEDICATION

MR. AND MRS. SEMYON MASUK

To Mr. and Mrs. Semyon Masuk and their family, who so generously donated the land upon which Masuk stands: We dedicate our year-book Exodus.

We have stayed together in disappointment, as well as in success. We have been proud of our class, and we realize that the bond of unity — within our class, as an integral part of Masuk High School, and as members of our community — justify this pride. It is our hope to further this spirit of unity as we broaden our horizons.

We, therefore, present the story of our years at Masuk showing the links in our chain of unity.

MASUK

INSIDE AND OUT

To the Graduates of 1963

The door to the threshold of your becoming is about to open to you. Through this door you will enter into a world crying out in need for each and every talent and all the knowledge you possess.

To truly educate is to change behavior. You were born with all your faculties, for parents, school, church, and community to put into their most advantageous plan so that you might become a wholesome and contributing human being. The time has now come when you must fully accept the total responsibility of the continuation of these processes in making yourself each day more worth-while as an individual and to your fellow men. Are you ready and prepared to accept this awesome task?

"Enter to learn, go forth to serve" seems most appropriate for any individual who has been granted the privilege of an education. Knowledge and experience are only worth-while to you and your country. May you in this service gain a greater understanding of all peoples, being able to serve a most universal cause. We challenge you to use your knowledge, talents, and experience to serve the cause of the dignity and rights of all mankind and to alleviate those differences which lead to possible total destruction of the human specie.

Your Administration, Faculty, Staff, and fellow students wish you the utmost success in your various endeavors to meet the challenge that has been placed upon your shoulders. May we have met our responsibility in helping you meet the difficulties that may arise in your fulfilling a trust place in you. Our sincere congratulations!

Charlie, how does it feel to be thirteen?

All aboard for Manhattan!!!

WE REMEN

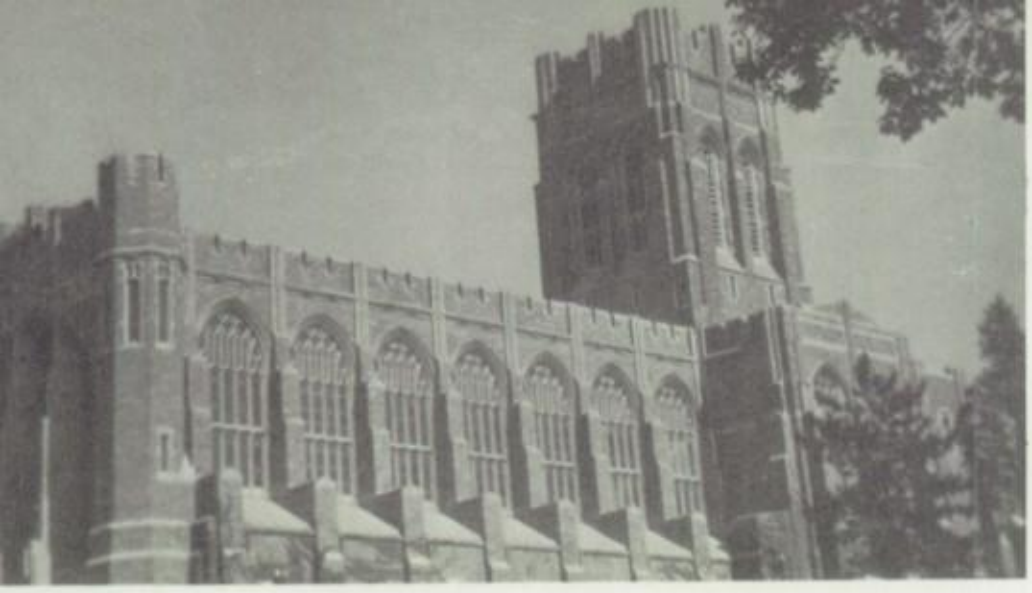
Our Senior girls liked shop too!

Our Junior High years were finally completed!

We entered Masuk in the fall of 1958 as little imps full of mischief. We were the class that had the nerve to give Mr. Degruttola a pamphlet entitled, "One Hundred and One Ways to be More Popular!" The new building was not yet completed, so we had to eat cold lunches in the homerooms. In the spring, we took the famed ferry ride around Manhattan Island. Several days later, Miss Smith, our principal, gave us our diplomas from junior high school.

As green freshmen, we were the first high school freshman class to have a complete high school with a functioning senior class. The "Inch Dance," sponsored by the freshman class, was credited with making the largest profit of all classes — seventeen dollars. Due to the size of our class and the experiences of former classes, we were the first class not to go to Washington, D.C. It was in this year that English classes began to attend the Shakespeare Theater in Stratford.

Our sophomore class dance, "Hawaiian Paradise," turned out to be successful. We were the first class to have speech. With Miss Meaney, we went to the Yale Art Museum in New Haven and to see Ben Hur at the Merritt Theater. We ended the year with a class picnic at Indian Wells.



Those West Point boys were really cute!

Aren't we handsome?

BER WHEN

Shake, rattle, and roll . . .

We are proud to be the first to have received class rings in our junior year. Our dance, "Cupid's Bow," which was held in the gym, was very unique. We are the very first to present entertainment at a dance. Our theme song, "We Ain't Got a Barrel of Money," and our Can-Can girls won fame throughout the school. In honor of the Senior Class of 1962, our class decorated and financed "Cielito Lindo," known as "A Little Bit of Heaven." We will never forget the time spent making decorations and the bottle drives conducted to scrape up money. The after-prom party at Vitramon was lots of fun. As another tribute to the seniors, we planned the Junior-Senior picnic at Squantz Pond. We somehow managed to cook breakfast although incidentals such as a spatula to flip pancakes, were forgotten! The climax of the event was the "dunking" which everyone received. And we'll never forget the skinny-dipping of the selected few in the brook!

Finally, after five years, we reached our senior year. Although we developed intellectually, we retained the impish quality which once earned us our reputation. "Our Last Dance" reiterated the theme song of our junior year, "We Ain't Got a Barrel of Money." The night was made memorable by Pug's strip-tease act.

Here comes another Gypsy Rose Lee!

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1963 of Masuk High School, the majority being of sound mind and wise judgement, do ordain, proclaim, and make public to all, this, our last Will and Testament.

ROBERTA ABBOTT leaves her pierced earrings to Kathy Wright.

FRANCINE BASTA leaves her library bill to anyone who can afford to pay it.

ANDREA BARDUGONE leaves her 135, 690, 043, 020 and six sweaters to anyone who has room for it.

TOMMY BARDUGONE leaves his ability to play pool to his younger brother, Frank.

ED BEARDSLEY leaves lots of razor blades to some bearded Junior.

MARYELLEN BJORKLUND leaves with CAROL SMITH their little turned up noses to anybody without a nose.

LAURA BRIDGEMAN leaves her cold feet at the bus stop to Laurie Meaney.

LINDA BYRON leaves her short skirts to MaryLou Dolzani.

RICHIE CHEMERO leaves his sports ability to Dominic Greco.

JEFF COLE leaves his English marks to anyone who wants them.

DOUG CONKLIN leaves his classical music to George Selostok.

LOUISE CURRI leaves her flirtatious mannerisms to any Junior girl who has the nerve to use them.

BOB DELEON leaves his trampoline burns to anyone who is crazy enough to try the stunts he did.

JUDY DEMENNA leaves her seat on the bus to John Kasper.

MICKI DONOHUE leaves her holey sneakers to Maureen Duffner.

DAVID DOWS leaves his chicken calls to one of Masuk's future farmers.

BARBARA DRING leaves her height to Martha Loss for obvious reasons.

LEELA DUVEDI leaves her wonderful memories, happy days, and her black forehead mark of Kum-Kum to Masuk.

CAROLE FARKAS leaves her tripping feet and shifting hips to the next sneaky fouler.

RICH FARRINGTON leaves his parking space to next year's fortunate Senior.

JEAN GABOR leaves her silence during study hall.

NANCY GESLIEN leaves her sunlamp to any pale Junior girl.

BILL GIRARD leaves his trapping experiences to Joe Feltovic.

APRIL GRAHAM leaves her classroom spats with you know who.

JUDY GREENE leaves her tardiness to some eager scholar.

RONNY GUSTAITUS leaves his drums to Jim Kilcoyne.

TOMMY HARPER leaves his ripped gym pants to Larry Palazzo.

FRANK HUFNER leaves Miss Plaisted to Brian Bartosik.

NORA ISLEIB leaves all the fun she's had playing basketball to Sue Streinz.

SUE JENNINGS leaves Miss Plaisted's English diaries to next year's Seniors.

CHARLENE JOHNSON leaves one ace bandage to Miss Bromley for the next person who sprains her ankle playing basketball.

CHARLIE KELLOGG leaves the tuba to any underclassman who is energetic enough to share a seat with it on the school bus.

DANNY KENNEY leaves gladly.

JOHN LESKOVSKY leaves all his fouls in basketball to New Milford.

TERRY LESTER leoves all his failing marks to Les Dymkoski.

MELANY KIRILUK leaves ten frozen finger tips to any "milkmaid" who drops her money tray into the freezer.

ELAINE LOHRMAN leaves her "hellos" to Mr. Brotherton.

SUE LOVELAND leaves her blush to Gail Hammond.

DAVE LYDEM leaves the athletic ability George Mengold left to Brian Bartosik because he never was on a team long enough to use it.

ED MACDONALD leaves his quietness.

GEORGE MANDRONA leaves his seat in Miss Selski's class to anyone who wants it.

LUCILLE MARTINO leaves a bottle of Lady Clairol to Sandra Gagne.

SHARON MENGOLD leaves her rosy cheeks to her cousin Linda.

SANDRA MOTT leaves her interest in Consumer Economics to the next class.

BOB NOWLAN leaves his Senior attitude to the Junior class.

TED NORMAN leaves his N.R.A. (National Retards' Association) card to Dave Dake.

MARTHA OUELLET leaves her typing skill to her cousin Pat in the hope that she does better.

GINGER PALAZZO leaves her driving skill to her brother Larry.

BOB PAUGH unwillingly leaves his speech class.

ELAINE PERKINSON leaves her old love letter collection to Laurie Meany.

SANDY PISARETZ leaves Masuk holding the fondest memories of her special friends.

CARL PORTER leaves his Penguin sails to Chipper Andrews.

GINNY REBAR leaves her athletic ability to Candy Henry.

JEAN RABEL left for Central.

FRED RANDOLPH leaves his size 12 track shoes to Brian Bartosik.

RICHARD RENKAVINSKY leaves his pleasing personality to anyone who needs it.

NANCY SHIPUL leaves a year's supply of midnight oil to a future Senior who decides to work.

ELAINE SCHUCHMAN leaves her good manners to Noreen Nichols.

GEORGE SMITH leaves his empty beer cans to any Junior who wants them.

SUE STOCKWELL leaves her broken Chemistry apparatus to Mr. D.

STAN SZAREK leaves a set shot to Bob Beamer.

CAROLE TOMPKINS leaves all the apples, cakes, cookies, and other foods she didn't have time to eat to Buddy Gorham.

CATHE VAYAN leaves a copy of her speech on women's rights to Mr. Fettig.

DESTINY WHITCHER leaves long hours of practicing for chorus to Barbara Bayers.

ALLISON WOLFE leaves a wet paintbrush to Mr. Ruffles.

JOHN WOLFE leaves his good test marks to any lazy Junior who dislikes homework.

ELAINE WOODWARD leaves her chewing gum to Miss Selski.

CLASS PROPHECY

The Boeing 707 plane landed at Idlewild and I, MELANY KIRILUK, returning from my most recent European trip, waved good-bye to two very charming airline stewardesses, SHARON MENGOLD and APRIL GRAHAM.

Sharon and April told me that TOMMY BARDUGONE was returning from Monaco, where his pool cues were selling very well, when he slipped going down the plane ramp and fractured his leg. The ambulance quickly brought Tommy to the emergency room of a New York hospital, where NANCY GESLIEN, the x-ray technician, SUE STOCKWELL, the medical secretary, and CAROLE TOMPKINS, the registered nurse, took care of him. FRANCINE BASTA, a practical nurse, found Dr. LEELA DUVEDI speaking with CAROLE FARKAS, the medical technician, in the lab. As Dr. Duvedi worked on Tommy's fractured leg, she ordered Sue Stockwell to notify the registrar for the private duty nurses, SUE JENNINGS, JUDY GREENE and CHARLENE JOHNSON.

As I was entering the hospital to visit Tommy, I met ANDY BARDUGONE who was working as an executive secretary in the Empire State Building. Andy mentioned that ELAINE SCHUCHMAN, who was the department head of history at Masuk, had received a letter from NORA ISLEIB, who was teaching children of servicemen in Germany. Elaine also said that STAN SZAREK, a music teacher, was leading a chorus of teachers. NANCY SCHIPUL, JEAN GABOR, LAURA BRIDGEMAN, and GINGER PALAZZO, 1963 grads, were among the members.

Seeing that Tommy was well taken care of, I decided to visit LOUISE CURRI. I went to the United Nations where she was working as an French interpreter.

We went to a nearby automat, where we met BARBARA DRING near the fruit salad. Barb, a fashion commentator of designs, was doing a fashion show at the Waldorf Astoria. She said that ALISON WOLFE, who was a magazine illustrator, would be there to design a cover for one of America's prominent women's magazines. Barb mentioned that BOB DELEON was a successful dairy producer in Vermont and that ELAINE PERKINSON, a Peace Corps member, was stationed at Mavinga, Angola, in Africa.

After dinner Louise and I went to SONNY MANDRONA'S penthouse on Park Avenue. Sonny, who had become a millionaire, was throwing a party for 1963 grads. At the party we learned that the engineers, RONNY GUSTAITUS, ED MAC DONALD, JOHN LESKOVSKY, and JEFF COLE, were attending a convention in New York City. BOB NOWLAN, BILL GIRARD, and TED NORMAN, who were physical education teachers, were busy eating and talking to CAROL SMITH, an elementary school teacher.

In the center of the room, the playboy of Las Vegas, BOB PAUGH, was aiming a pie for JEAN RABEL'S face to square a grudge he had held for years. SANDY MOTT, ELAINE LOHRMAN, and JEAN RABEL were typists for the playboy of New York, GEORGE SMITH. In a corner, SANDY PISARETZ, a psychologist, was discussing the value of psychoanalysis with CATHE VAYAN, a social worker in Harlem. TOMMY HARPER, America's favorite cartoonist, was discussing with CARL PORTER, a veterinarian, the possibility of bringing a hippopotamus into his daily comic strip.

MARY ELLEN BJORKLUND and ROBERTA ABBOTT, who were working with retarded children, talked to LINDA BYRON, a commercial artist, while RICHIE CHEMERO, a drafstman for a New York architect, listened to JOHN WOLFE. John, a nuclear physicist was explaining his latest project in the bubble chamber at the Brookhaven Laboratories to GINNY REBAR. Later, Ginny, a biology teacher, asked MICKI DONOHUE about her latest trip into the Amazon for rare mushrooms.

FRANK HUFNER, a farmer, was telling DAN KENNEY, a physical education teacher, that he had received a letter from RICHARD RENKAVINSKY. Richard, who was in the Army, mentioned that he saw ED BEARDSLEY of the Navy, and TERRY LESTER of the Air Force at a Caribbean base.

RICHARD FARRINGTON, a business man, and his private secretaries LUCILLE MARTINO, NANCY KACH, ELAINE WOODWARD, and JUDY DEMENNA could not leave Boston to attend the party. They were working very hard to land a big commission from the president of the Lonely Hearts' Club, FRED RANDOLPH. Fred's club was rapidly expanding so he hired MARTHA OUELLET, a lawyer's secretary, to type legal matters.

The next day, I decided to visit Connecticut for the weekend. As I was driving along the Merritt Parkway, I saw DAVE LYDEM, a state policeman, giving a ticket to DOUG CONKLIN, a commercial artist, who had been rushing a little too much to meet a deadline.

I stopped at the local A & P for some fresh fruit. Among the apples and oranges I bumped into DAVID DOWS, who served me.

The next day I went to visit the church where CHARLIE KELLOGG, the Congregational minister, gave a sermon on "Fear and God." After the service, I saw SUE LOVELAND and DESTINY WHITCHER. They mentioned that they were both working as secretaries at Carpenters Steel.

The Student Council, under the advising of Miss Cousins and Mr. Sohon, is the main student governing body of the school. Two representatives are elected from each homeroom. Developing attitudes and practice in good citizenship, its purpose involves: 1) improvement of school moral and spirit, 2) providing a forum for student expression, 3) promoting harmonious relations throughout the school, 4) providing order in student activities, and 5) furnishing training for leaders and followers. Activities for which the Student Council assumed responsibility were the sponsoring of sock hops after home basketball games, organizing a school handbook, and the initiating of an after-school bus program.

The National Honor Society, founded in the spring of 1960, is an organization whose members were chosen from the junior and senior classes on the basis of scholarship, service, leadership and character. Under the guidance of Miss E. Eleanor Smith, the members have assisted in many school functions. Among these are ushering for graduation, organizing a homecoming for graduates, and sponsoring an alumnae dance. Members of the organization also annually participate in an inspiring candlelighting service and pinning ceremony for new members.

Bardugone, (treas.), S. Mengold, V. Palazzo, C. Kellogg.

Organized in 1960 under the advising of Miss Cousins, the Student A.F.S. liason committee encourages student participation in the American Field Service Foreign-Exchange Student program. It also aids in financial support of the program and helps introduce the foreign exchange student to the student body and the town. The committee sponsored a teachers' tea, A.F.S. assembly, Booster Day and a Farewell Tea throughout the year.

JOURNALISM
NEED NOT BE DULL!

Quite busy trying to meet pressing deadlines during this past year was the school newspaper staff. The newspaper, "Masuk Mirror," has improved greatly since it was initiated in 1961. Informing the student body of school activities, it includes several feature columns and allows the students with creative ability to see their writings and art work in print.

MUSIC GOES ROUND 'N' ROUND

The Band was organized in 1958 under the baton of Mr. Howard Marks. Presently under the direction of Mr. Zimmer, it provides instrumental instruction and a sense of enjoyment for those who participate. Also a cultural asset for both the community and the school, it presents two annual concerts as well as playing for numerous pep rallies, festivals and fairs, basketball games, assemblies, opening ceremonies, and the Memorial Day Parade. Earlier during the year, the band members dressed in costumes of the Hadyn Band and presented a performance for the National Education Week program. This was the first year the Band had been offered as a credit course, although practice sessions were scheduled after school and during the activity period. The year was terminated with the band playing for the big Spring Festival and the Graduation exercises.

The Drama Club was first organized in 1959 and since has put on several plays for both the students and the townspeople. Their dramatic abilities were displayed this past year in a unique production of the "Wizard of Oz." The purpose of the club is not only to develop acting abilities but to gain knowledge in all the skills of the theatre including "back-stage" work such as make-up, propwork and prompting. Advisor for the organization is Miss Plaisted. Officers this year include: pres., S. Pisaretz; vice-pres., N. Isleib; sec., K. Hudak; and treas., C. Austin.

Jr. High Future Teachers Club — ROW 1. Left to Right: C. Right, L. Ciotti, E. Bardugone, C. Soukup, Mr. MacCauley, D. McLaughlin, M. Greco, C. Lynch. ROW 2: S. Zaleha, K. Dever, V. Casola, J. Wagner, S. Hornak, K. Silder, P. Callahan.

The Jr. High Future Teachers Club was first organized this year. Advisor for the group is Mr. MacCauley. Working hand in hand with the Sr. High club, these students are attempting to learn first hand knowledge about the teaching profession.

The Sr. High Future Teachers Club has been one of the most active professional clubs in the school. Under the leadership of Mrs. Masuk, the purpose of the club is to inform the members about the advantages and disadvantages of the teaching profession. This is accomplished via classroom visitations, distinguished speakers and films in the educational field, and visiting institutions of higher learning. The group also sponsors an annual spaghetti dinner and a movie to raise money for their scholarship fund.

The Jr. High Future Nurses Club was first organized this past year by Mrs. Boynton. The goals of the organization are to further interest in nursing and to provide service for the community.

The Boys Chef Clubs were organized by Mrs. Schueler for the purposes of "fulfillment of life through enjoyment of food" and "eat, eat, eat — as well as learn to cook." Each meeting, the boys prepare a different food. Chairmen of the Sr. High "Bachelor's Kitchen" are R. Nowlan, H. Gorham and R. Corey. Chairman for the Jr. High "Mess Hall" is B. Smith.

IN THE HOME!

The Garden-Horticulture Club, advised by Mr. Constanzo, is composed of 7th and 8th grade students interested in the beauty of flowers and who wish to create flower arrangements. Their arrangements have been used in the cafeteria for several activities during the past year. Officers of the club are S. Hornbrook, P. Duefrene, R. Gorham and K. Johnson.

The Aeronautics Club is composed of Jr. High boys interested in the building and flying of all types of model aircraft. Advised by Mr. Corl, the purposes of the club are 1) to instill in the members a basic knowledge of the theory of flight, both in the atmosphere and in space, 2) to develop a vocational interest in the wholesome hobby of model building and flying, 3) to follow space exploration and other current happenings related to aeronautics in the space age, and 4) to study the history of flight.

The Motor Mechanics Club was organized this year for the first time, and is divided into two divisions. Advisor for the Model Auto division is Miss Begin and officers are: pres. H. Hanson; vice-pres., R. Mix; treas., M. Kellogg; and sec., W. Edwards. Last winter, these boys sponsored a model car contest. Advisor for the mechanics division is Miss Moller and officers are: S. Kaffan, G. Cole, D. Callahan, and E. Miller. These boys have learned the mechanical aspects of an automobile by rebuilding an old used car which they bought.

Chess Club — ROW 1. Left to Right: N. Lieberman, Mr. Lachowicz (advisor), J. Lategano (sec.), A. Farber (pres.), A. Mortenson, G. Hooper (vice-pres.). Organized in 1961 by Mr. Lachowicz, the Chess Club is composed of boys interested in learning the strategy of chess. It originally began as a chess and checkers club, but it was soon discovered that the interest of the members was almost completely in playing chess.

The Radio-Electronics Club was organized in October 1962 by Mr. Distinti to provide personal skill in the art of electronics and to investigate the field of communication. Activities during the past year have included: 1) learning the fundamentals of radio and electronics, 2) assembling radios, amplifiers, and other electronic equipment, and 3) obtaining amateur radio licenses.

The spirited cheerleaders under the guidance of Miss Bromley have accomplished their aims in fostering school spirit and good sportsmanship at Masuk's basketball games. These girls, who were chosen for outstanding personality and cheering ability, have practices twice a week, cheer at two games a week, plan and stage pep rallies, as well as promote sale of refreshments at the games.

The Girls' Leader Corps, under the direction of Miss Bromley, was organized so that girls deft in athletic ability might have the opportunity to teach gym classes and derive enjoyment from playdays within the Western Connecticut Conference League. Girls are chosen on the basis of a written test and an actual teaching experience before a gym class. The initiation requirements are well known throughout the school as the sportsmanship of the girls is tested by several "humiliating but done in fun" experiences. The initiation week is then terminated by an overnight meeting in the home of one of the members. This past year, the club prepared Christmas baskets for needy families and sponsored candy sales to raise funds for scholarships and trips. Other planned events included the "Parents Night," an overnight camping trip and a high school dance. The big event of the year was the "Spring Festival" which they sponsored. This is a fair held on the Masuk fields with each organization and club of the high school displaying an exhibit to show the work they had done the past year. The Boys' Leader Corps, organized shortly after the formation of the Girls' Leader Corps, is under the direction of Mr. Aldrich and Mr. Holscher. The members are chosen on the basis of athletic ability. During the week, they teach underclassmen sports fundamentals in gym classes. They also partake in various playday activities throughout the year.

IN THE FALL

Masuk's first Cross Country team was also initiated in 1960. Presently under the advising of Mr. Holscher, the team really worked hard although their record of 1 win and 7 losses might not at first prove too impressive. Bob Trew has still maintained the school record by running Masuk's new 2½ mile course in 15 minutes and 22 seconds.

Masuk's basketball team has changed coaches but still has shown other schools in the W.C.C. that its squad still has reason to be feared. With the heighth and strong defensive provided by Bob Paugh and the high scoring of Bill McKinney (who established a new season scoring record for Masuk with 289 points) and Bill Girard (who also established a new school record of scoring 27 points in one game), the Masuk five left never a dull moment while on the gym floor. The boys also played in state class C tournament and lost to Avon by a score of 55-48, only after putting up a good battle.

Come on boys! Let's get that ball!

Hey fellows! You can't catch me!

Would you kindly get off my foot.

Hey! I think I see the basket.

Who asked for your help?

Yeh! Now we are only behind by 20 points.

When did I ever tell you boys to get tired?

ON YOUR MARK! GET SET! GO!

Masuk's Track and Field team was first organized in 1961 and is presently coached by Mr. Aldrich. Last year, they had an impressive record of four wins and three losses for a first year team and placed fifth position in the W.C.C. championships. The team also has had the wonderful opportunity of running on a new cinder track. Records set for the school last year were: 100 yd. dash, D. Dey, 10.6 sec.; 220 yd. dash, B. Mussen, 24.3 sec.; 440 yd. dash, T. Norman, 56.2 sec.; 880 yd. run, B. Trew, 2 min., 7.6 sec.; mile, B. Trew, 5 min. 8 sec.; broad jump, D. Dey, 20 ft., 8¼ in.; shot put, T. ROMANCE 'N' BASEBALL

Last year's baseball team brought laurels to the school, completing the season with a record of 9 wins and 5 losses, and tying with Ridgefield for 2nd place in conference play. The squad, coached by Mr. Holscher and Mr. Korcsmaros, displays a great deal of spirit on the field and is certain to enjoy laurels in future years.
